Activity Assembly

Hypnotist Amuses Spellbound Scots

The Activity Card Assembly for Fall 1975 featured Mr. George Sharp, the man famous for his "power of suggestion." The assembly was held October 10, and only Activity Card holders were able to attend.

Mr. Sharp included the student body as well as the volunteer students in demonstrating his abilities. Using his influence, he made students believe that they were muscle men, leaders of the women's lib and gay liberation movements, and people such as Raquel Welch and Burt Reynolds. As a result, the assembly proved to be a most interesting and entertaining one.

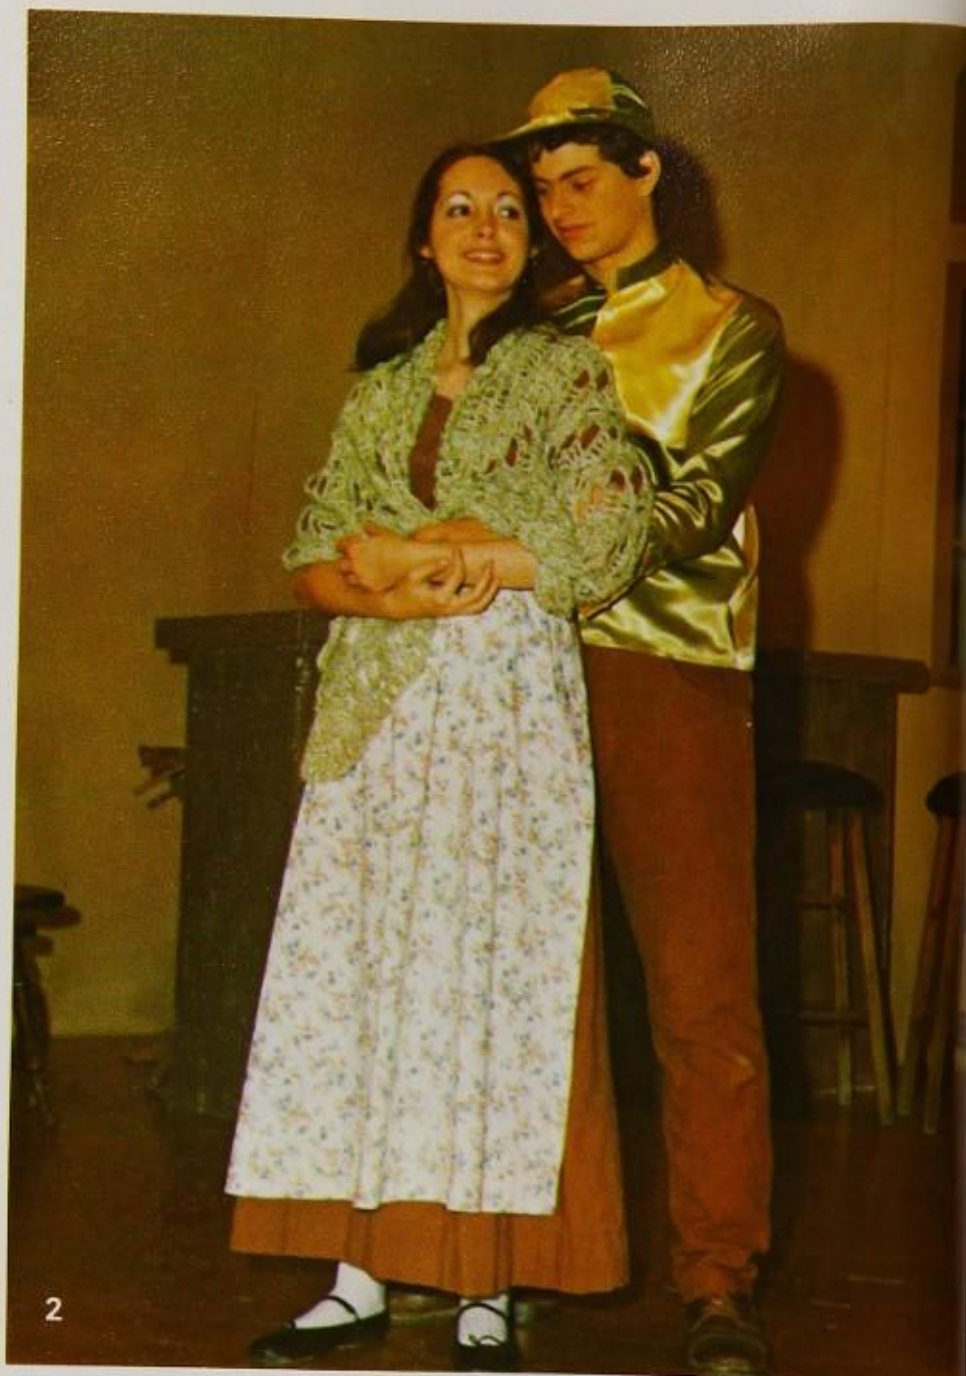

1. The volunteers demonstrate how they would kiss their lovers. 2. The student body gets into the act. 3. Mr. Sharp's influence turns senior guys into "muscle men." 4. The leads were given to Alison England as "Ruth," Millard Roth as "Mr. Baker," Sue Speth as "Eileen," and Paul Nakauchi as "Appopolous."

The Walk-a-thon, headed by Carrie Krupitsky, was planned to raise funds for school athletics. After having friends sign sponsor sheets pledging money, students walked laps around the track trying to reach the 20 mile limit.

Members of Student Council planned the Walk-a-thon and were at the event to help with the counting of laps walked.

Class Rivalry.

Seniors Overcome Juniors by 19-0

This year, Granada held its first Junior-Senior rival football game, possibly starting a new tradition at Granada.

To determine which class was number one, Junior and Senior guys challenged each other to a game of football, which ended in the Seniors overpowering the Juniors, 19-0.

The competition was strong on the field, but the rivalry was also in the stands, where the Senior and Junior class cheerleaders aroused spirit for their respective teams.

Memorial Assembly

Speaker Highlights King's Success

In recognition of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr.'s birthday, the Executive Director of the Afro-American Cultural Education Center, James W. Kendricks, spoke in Highlander Hall on January 15.

Before a crowd of about 450 students, Kendricks spoke about King and his famous "I have a dream" speech. It was a hot August day in 1963 when King proclaimed this famous speech. "The great thing about that day," said Kendricks, "was that half a million people assembled to hear a man speak about freedom."

Kendricks stated that he felt Dr. King was on the brink of bringing together all races of the nation. King was a threat to many people, therefore it was "expedient to assassinate him."

The assembly was part of a citywide L. A. City Schools program to pay tribute to Dr. King and familiarize students and teachers with the civil rights movement in which Dr. King played a prominent role.

After both squads are chosen, they have the entire summer to prepare for the upcoming semester. During the month of August, the cheerleaders and yell leaders attended a four day cheerleading camp at USC, where they learned new techniques in cheering and arousing spirit. At this camp, the Scot cheerleading squad gained the Spirit Award in final competition.

The spring varsity and junior varsity cheerleaders support the baseball, track and swimming teams. Their spirit and endless enthusiasm encouraged both spectators and athletes alike.

Future Opportunities

College Fair Gives Students Previews

Each year Granada Hills High School presents a one day College Fair, where representatives from different colleges on the west coast come to Granada to present their schools to the student body. Selected second and fourth period classes were allowed to attend this convention. The representatives talked about their schools while presenting free literature to interested students. Mrs. Beyer and the California Scholarship Federation headed the convention. Each representative was handled by one California Scholarship Federation member. There were 38 college representatives, 3 R.O.T.C. representatives, and 1 financial aid representative.

The general consensus of the students was that they found the college fair enjoyable and informative.

1. Granada students browse among the tables of college pamphlets. 2. The representative from San Diego University is questioned by interested students.

Annual Competition

Band, Drill Team Receive Honors

"To place in the top three positions in the city is a great achievement," commented Mr. Carl Lockwood, director of the marching band, after the Granada Hills Marching Band and Drill Team were announced as the second best unit in the city. Granada displayed their superiority on January 13 in the Second Annual Combined Band and Drill Team Competition held in the packed, noisy Los Angeles Sports Arena.

The Highlander band, led by drum major Paul Trepanier, and the Bonnie Lassie Drill Team, sponsored by Mrs. Carolyn Gunny and Mrs. Elise Nybo and captains Lynn Nasca and Pam Symons, were also named the Mid Valley's best combined unit.

Granada, one of 14 schools to participate in this event, gained the Kiwanis Trophy after performing a ten minute show of their own choosing. All competitors were judged on marching and maneuvering, showmanship, music and appearance.

Both the band and Drill Team worked extremely hard to perform an outstanding show.

This play is based on historical fact concerning the Salem witch trials. The play was performed without the actual use of "sets" to create more of an intense setting.

The second show of the spring semester was a popular play called "Count Dracula", under the student direction of LeAnn Osmon. The light play was presented in a "camp" fashion, and was enjoyable and funny.

The play takes place in Northern London in an asylum with Count Dracula trying to possess the young and attractive Mina into a vampire.

Goldthorpe Proven in Opening of Year

In the first game of the 1975 season, Granada faced the El Camino Conquistadors with a new addition to the squad, transfer Jeff Goldthorpe. A passing combination of Goldthorpe to Cliff Ruby was immediately established. The two, each in their first efforts, gained a total of 213 yards through the air. With the rock'n and roll'n at Pierce College, Granada walked over El Camino with a final score of 37-14.

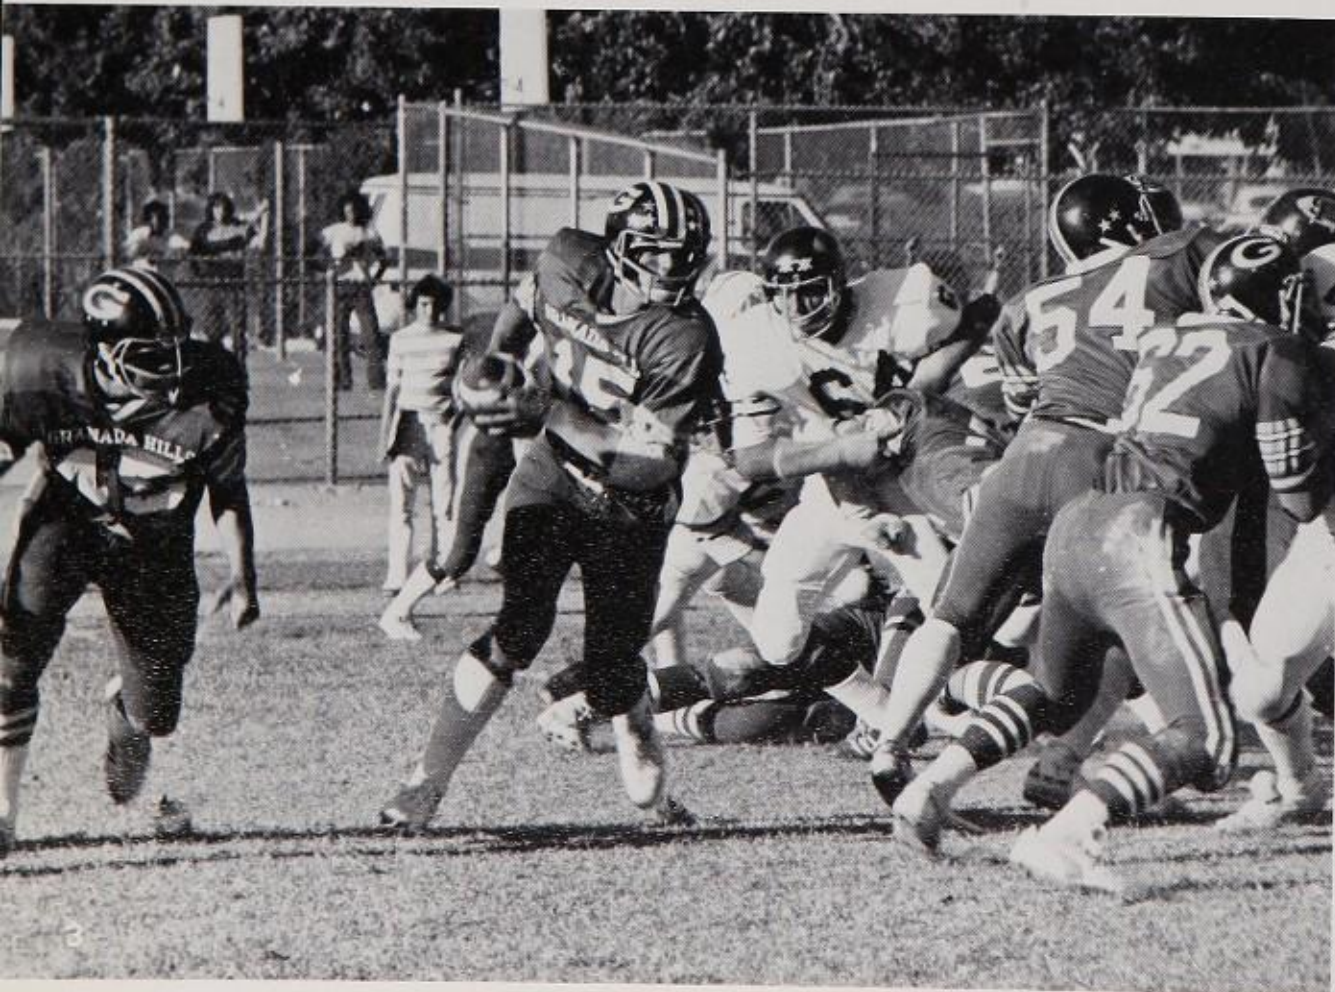

The highly-rated Crespi Celtics were shocked by Granada in the Scots' first home game, 32-6. Goldthorpe to Ruby was again the winning combination as they moved the ball 227 yards. Halfback Craig Matsuda showed the Celtics his stuff as he raced 23 yards for Granada's first score.

Against their third opponent of the season, Granada took their first loss against Chatsworth. Losing 13-12, Granada never seemed to get off the floor. The Chatsworth defense seemed to know Granada's plays and players. Many times Ruby was under triple coverage.

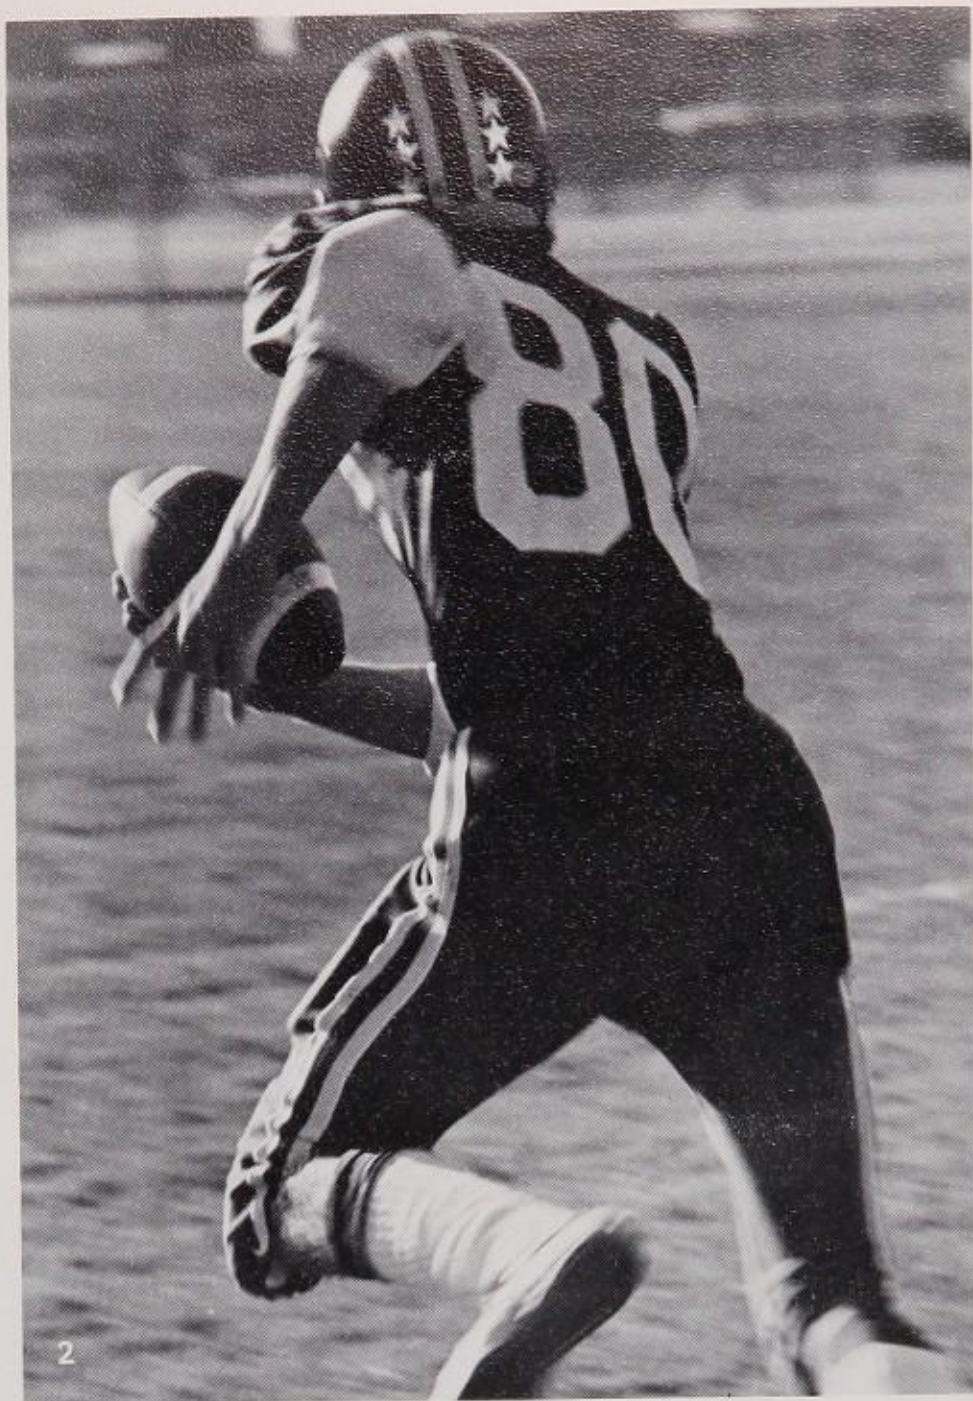

Playing in the P.T.A. Action Bowl game, Granada tied a tough San Pedro Pirates team, 14-14. Ruby was tightly covered which left the door open for Brad Smith who had six catches for 97 yards.

The "Head Hunter" defensive unit held all four pre-season teams to a maximum of 14 points. The Scots' great defensive play enabled Granada to enter into league competition with a 2-1-1 record.

1. Scott Meyerhoff stops his opponent short. 2. Brad Smith takes off after completing in perfect form. 3. Jeff Goldthorpe leaves crowd behind while Kevin Adair guards. 4. Tony Bernardo clears path for Donny Simmons. 5. Mark Bulick gets his man.

Ruby Brings Scots 1975 Playoff Berth

Opening league play, Granada conquered the Monroe Vikings in front of packed stands at Monroe, 41-19. In this game, Jeff Goldthorpe became the city's leading passer as he passed for 238 yards.

The Homecoming Game was the next week against Van Nuys. Granada's potent offense walked all over the Wolves as they gained 305 total yards, 205 of which were on the ground. The final score was 23-13.

Tragedy struck! Goldthorpe was injured in an accident. Cliff Ruby was assigned to take over as quarterback on Halloween night at Kennedy. He passed for 236 yards but that was not enough as the Golden Cougars defeated Granada, 22-12.

Mark Bulick then took on the Braves at Birmingham as he forced them into four turnovers. Ruby completed bombs to Tom Duddy, Brad Smith and Mark Andraszcyk which enabled Granada to win 28-14.

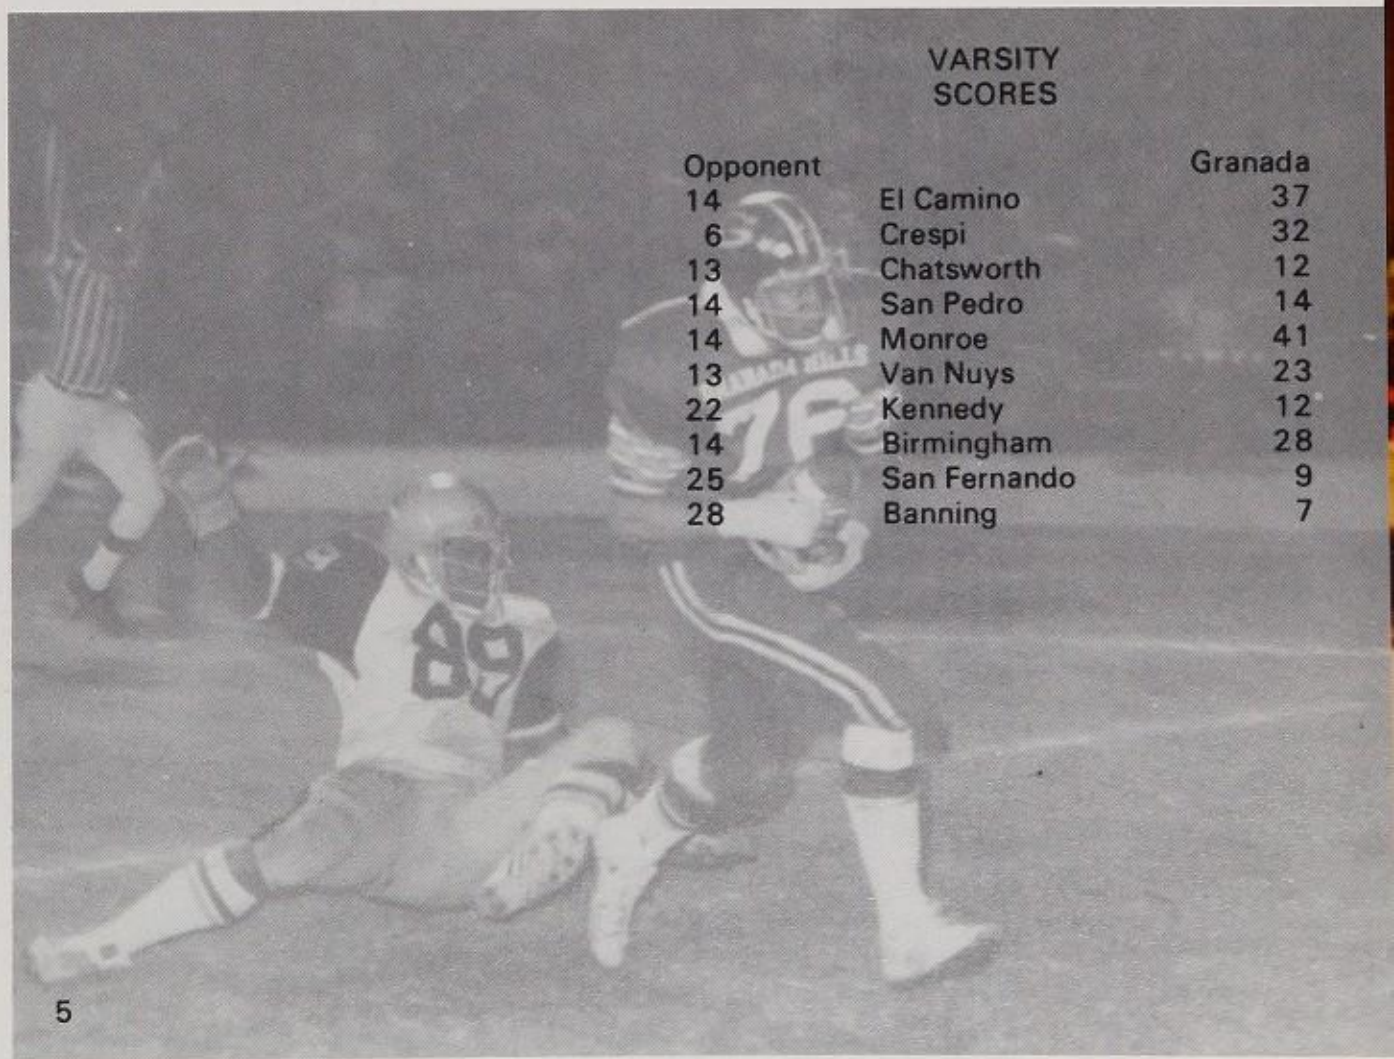

In the final league game Granada tangled with the San Fernando Tigers. The Tigers were too powerful as Granada bowed to them 26-9.

Granada then advanced to city playoff action against Banning High School. Adair scored Granada's lone touchdown as Granada ended their season with a final score of 28-7.

Scots Better Skills During Fine Year

The junior varsity football team of Granada had a good year which resulted in a 4-2-1 record. The players on the team are given an extra opportunity to improve their skills.

Scott Marshall was the quarterback most of the season, although against Birmingham the Highlanders had no notable leader. Jorge Barba played on both sides of the line, offensive receiver and defensive back, while Dale Leibert played right end.

Dave Chieruzzi played well as offensive lineman while Tim Impens played tailback. Andy Solkovits performed well at the left end position.

Team Ends Year Tied For Second

Ending in a tie for second place with the San Fernando Tigers and an overall record of 4-4, the Bee football team played well.

Steve Duddy, quarterback for most of the season, led the Bees through a good 1975 season. Dean Valeriano finished up the season at quarterback as Duddy moved up to the varsity squad.

Paul Miller and John Eller were honored with spots on the All-Mid Valley Bee first team offense for their outstanding play which they had demonstrated throughout the year.

Eric Stephens, Mark Mascola, Ron Sipernock, and Duddy were all named to the second offensive line.

With a better knowledge of football, these athletes can now climb the ladder toward a varsity position.

Squad Plays Well as Graham Leads

The Granada Hills soccer team enjoyed a fine league season. They finished with a 6-3-1 record. This was good enough for a second place finish.

The team entered the play-offs against Poly. The Scots were defeated by a quick Parrot team 4-0.

The junior varsity squad had a good season in a limited number of games. They showed skill and determination in gaining experience for next season.

The varsity team had an extremely good defense. Fullback Tim Smith, and goalie Brad DeLonga, each All-League, led the defenders.

The halfbacks were led by Cloud Volkert, second team All-League, and Bill Meyer, Honorable Mention.

Richard Graham, All-League, and Jerome Nehus, second team All-League, led the offense. The team averaged 2.2 goals a game during the season.

Cross Country

Highlanders Run to Successful Season

The cross-country team entered the 1975 season with high hopes. Returning from the 1974 team were several pivotal competitors, including John Wendler, one of the city's best runners. Many of those on the team had been training the entire year and were ready for outstanding performances.

The tenth grade and junior varsity teams captured Mid-Valley League titles with undefeated records. The varsity finished 4-1, and would have been undefeated if not for a heartbreaking defeat suffered in the final meet of the regular season.

The Scots peaked in the league meet with the teams delivering their best performances as a whole. In the following weeks, injuries to key members of the team diminished Granada's success in the semi-final and City Championship meets. Despite this, Victor Goethals placed second in the tenth grade division, Kevin Fee placed second in junior varsity, and John Wendler placed fourth in varsity.

Varsity Basketball

Successful Season Sought By Granada

When practices began in 1975, a city championship by the Granada Hills High School basketball team was a goal. In 1976, after many hours of practice and 24 games, a dream came true—the varsity basketball team is number one in the city.

This year's team owned a 19-5 record while averaging 76.5 points per game. Against Van Nuys, early in league play, the squad set a school record by scoring 114 points in one game. The team owned five members of the All-Mid-Valley League Team. Those members were Dan Soller, Scott Soller, Brett Davis, Larry Flynn and George Schell.

George Schell had a great outside jump shot, popping the ball through the hoop from the corner anytime he wanted. He was also an excellent rebounder.

Larry Flynn, the starting center, was a good rebounder all season. He averaged 9 rebounds per game and had an excellent outlet pass.

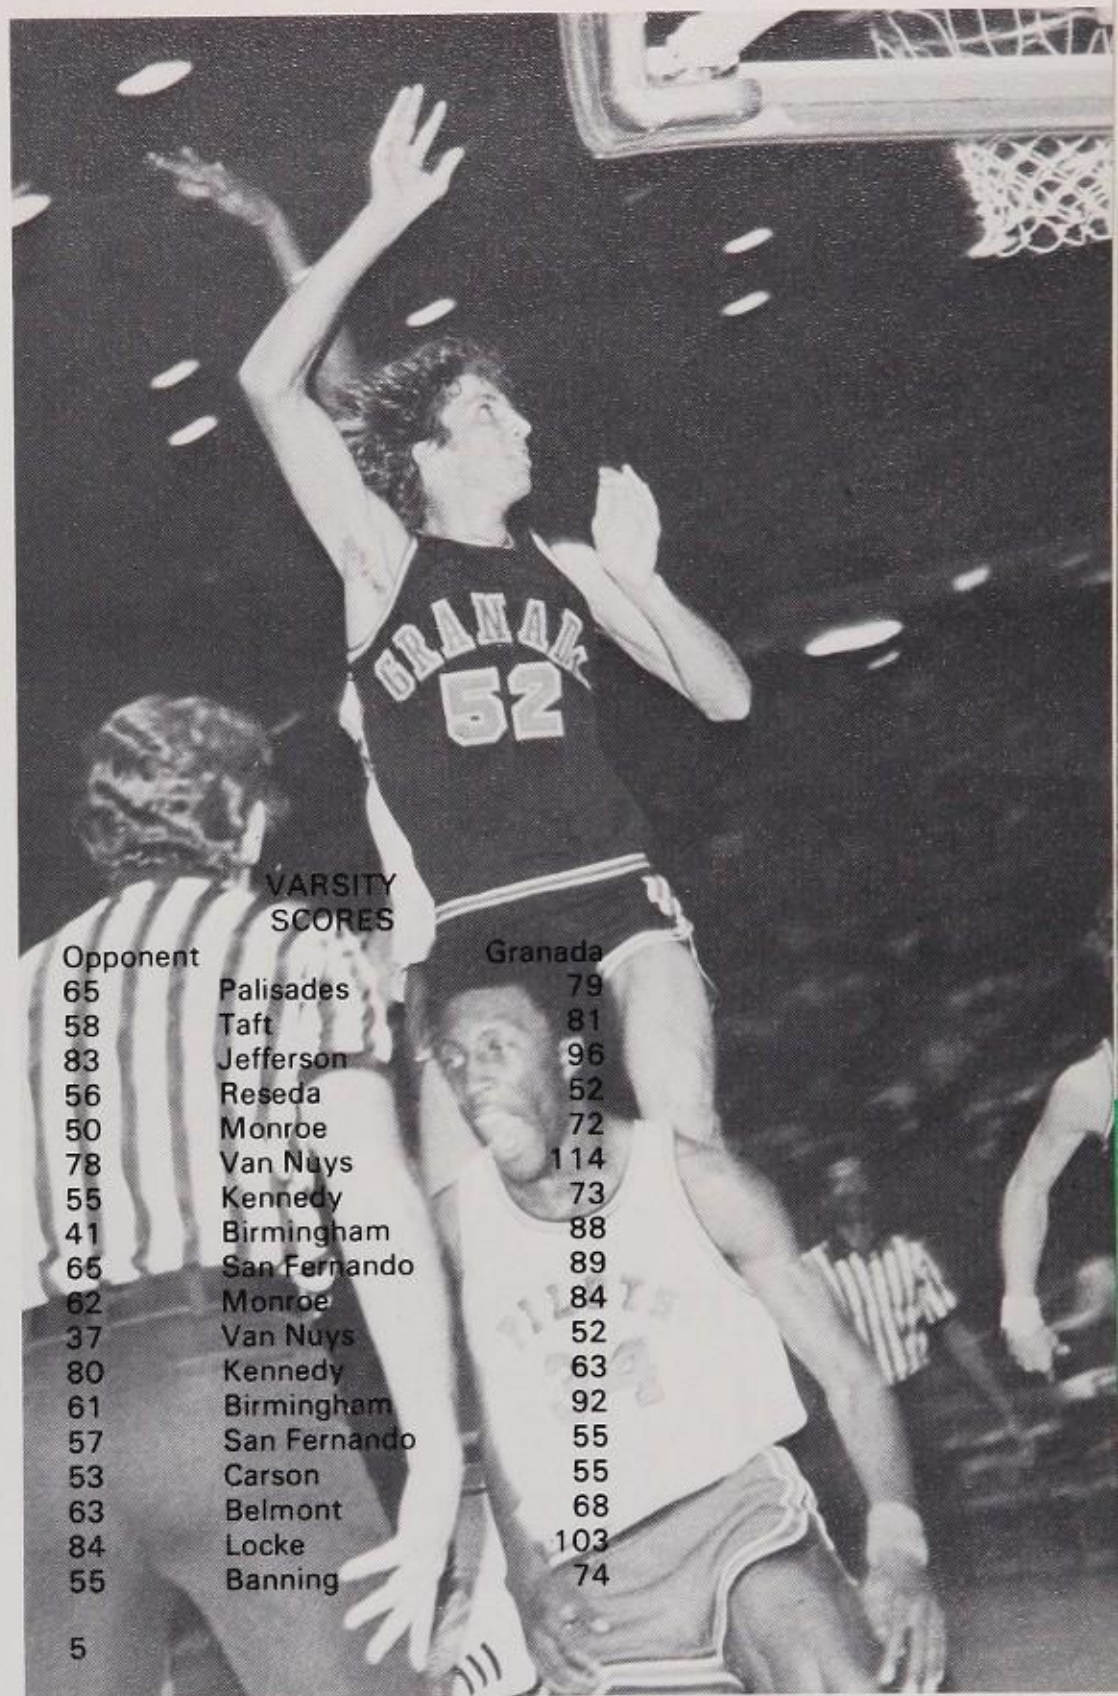

Scott Soller was quick, had a good outside shot and kept the opposing team's playmaker off balance.

Mark Velligan, Jim Jacobs, Jim Panek, Scott Hamilton, Dave Surmon, and Jeff Strassner were the season's contributing substitutes.

1. Dan Soller shows good style against Banning in city play. 2. Scott Soller tries to pass off to fellow teammate. 3. Brett Davis performs jump shot against opponent. 4. George Schell reaches to put two in. 5. Larry Flynn goes for a lay-up with strong opposition.

Bee

Highlanders Finish In Second Place

Working for a 5-5 league record, the Scot Bee team finished in second place.

Jeff Feder, the team captain and a starting guard, was a fine floor player and did a great job of running the team. He averaged 10 points per game while scoring 100 total points.

Howard Cushnir was a steady ball player all season long. He scored 6.4 points per game as a starting guard.

Although he was injured most of the season and never came into his own, Dave Seider was a good scorer and a great floor player.

Fred Schuster was a great rebounder while Pat Nickell contributed as a scorer. Gary Schneider came off the bench many times, acting practically like a starter. Dale Guerra and Terry Ball also came in to contribute in Granada's efforts.

The team's main weakness was their inconsistency. According to head coach Mr. Robert Johnson, the team could not put things together at the right time.

Cee

Games During '76 Show Scot Ability

The Cee basketball team, coached by Mr. Robert Johnson, finished third in their league after closing out their season with a 5-5 record.

The team improved their abilities and skills with every game they participated in. Each player contributed to help the team.

Ron Bernstein was the team captain as well as a starting guard. He averaged 10.3 points per game and was a fine shooter plus being a very good team leader.

David Guerra, a starting forward, was by far the most outstanding all-around scorer. He led the team in every department; total points, total rebounds, total ball recoveries and total assists. According to coach Johnson, he did everything well.

John Wanek was the starting center. He scored and rebounded very well all season. He pulled down 70 rebounds and scored 104 total points.

Volleyball

Scots Spike Wins Throughout Season

In their second season, the Granada Hills High School boys' volleyball team had much more experience than last year. This was shown by the team's improved performance.

The leaders of this year's team were Jim Jacobs, Dan Soller, Jorge Ostrovsky and Craig Abshere. The players on the team were very enthusiastic and wanted to do well.

The coach of the 1976 team was Walter Ker, a student teacher from CSUN. His coaching efforts were overseen by Mr. Harold O'Halloran.

Swimming

Aqua Team Swims To Scot Victories

1976 proved to be a year for changes, at least on this year's swim team. First, the team adopted a new coach, Mr. Edward Buchanan. The second change was the acceptance of females. There were more girls on this team than any other Granada swim team.

Swimming is broken down into three categories: varsity, Bee, and Cee. It is again broken down into swimming events and diving.

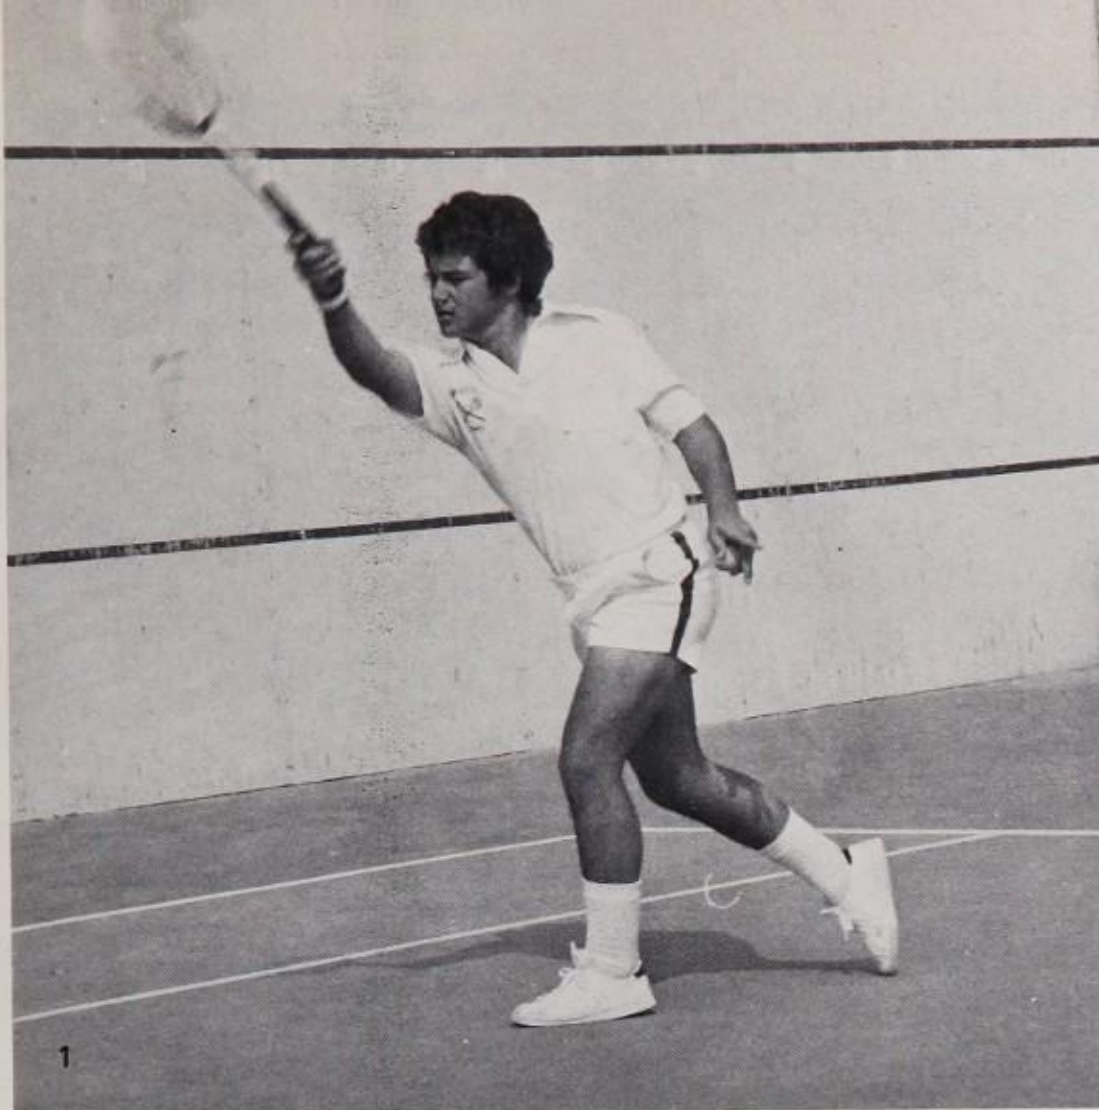

The swimming events include relays, medleys, backstroke, breast stroke, butterfly, and free style.

The diving team, consisting of four people, had the expectations of an outstanding season at the beginning of the league competition.

Tennis

Racketeers Serve Competitive Season

The 1976 varsity tennis team had a very successful season. The team boasted five returning lettermen, Darryl Potyk, Darryl Feingold, Jeff Kutnick, Mike Bruer, and Harold Gordon. Each of these boys helped shape and prepare the rest of the team for the four practice and ten league meets. There were two important clashes against city powerhouses, El Camino and defending champion, Taft.

Practice was a very significant part of the team's success. Many hours were devoted to the development of each player's serve and form.

Gymnastics

Gymnasts Perform For G.H. in Spring

With most of the last year's scoring gymnasts returning to this year's team, the Granada gymnastics team had high expectations of doing well during the 1976 season.

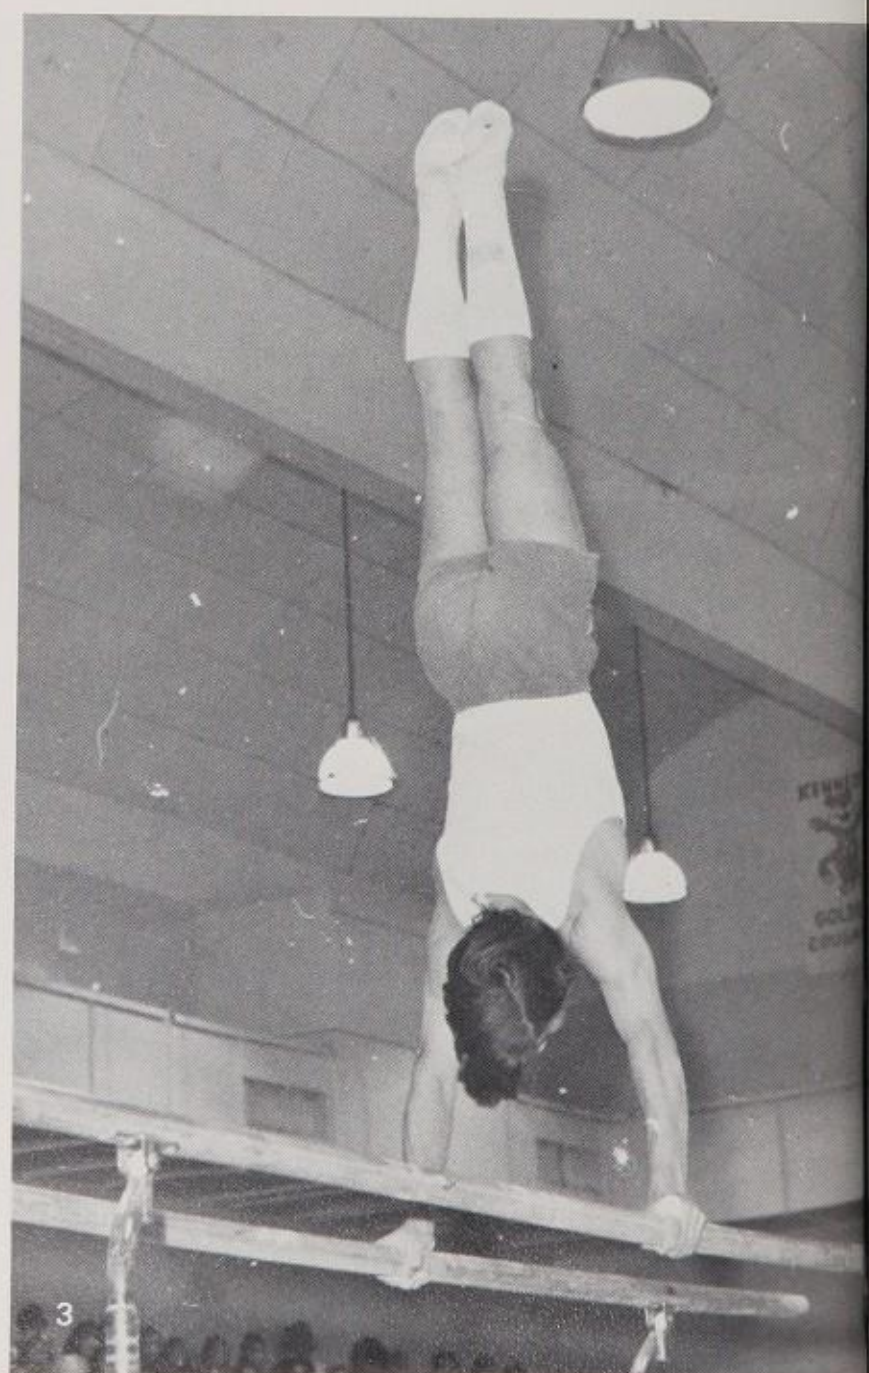

The team, coached by Mr. Harold O'Halloran, competed every Thursday in a school gym.

The long horse, parallel bars, pommel horse, horizontal bars, rings and free exercise are the events in which high school gymnasts compete.

Bob Mason, a senior, led the team as he participated in all six events.

"This year's members, who worked for Granada, were very enthusiastic and have performed well," commented Coach O'Halloran.

Golf

Team Drives Way To Granada Wins

The golf team, which lost all of the varsity players from the 1975 team, began their season having little experience.

This year's team, comprised of last year's J.V.'s, had to carry the league champion crown throughout the 1976 season. The Scots have won the league title for 10 years in a row.

Last year's junior varsity golfers proved themselves capable of making this year's varsity team a good one. The tenth graders on the team were outstanding and should do well in their upcoming years for the Highlanders.

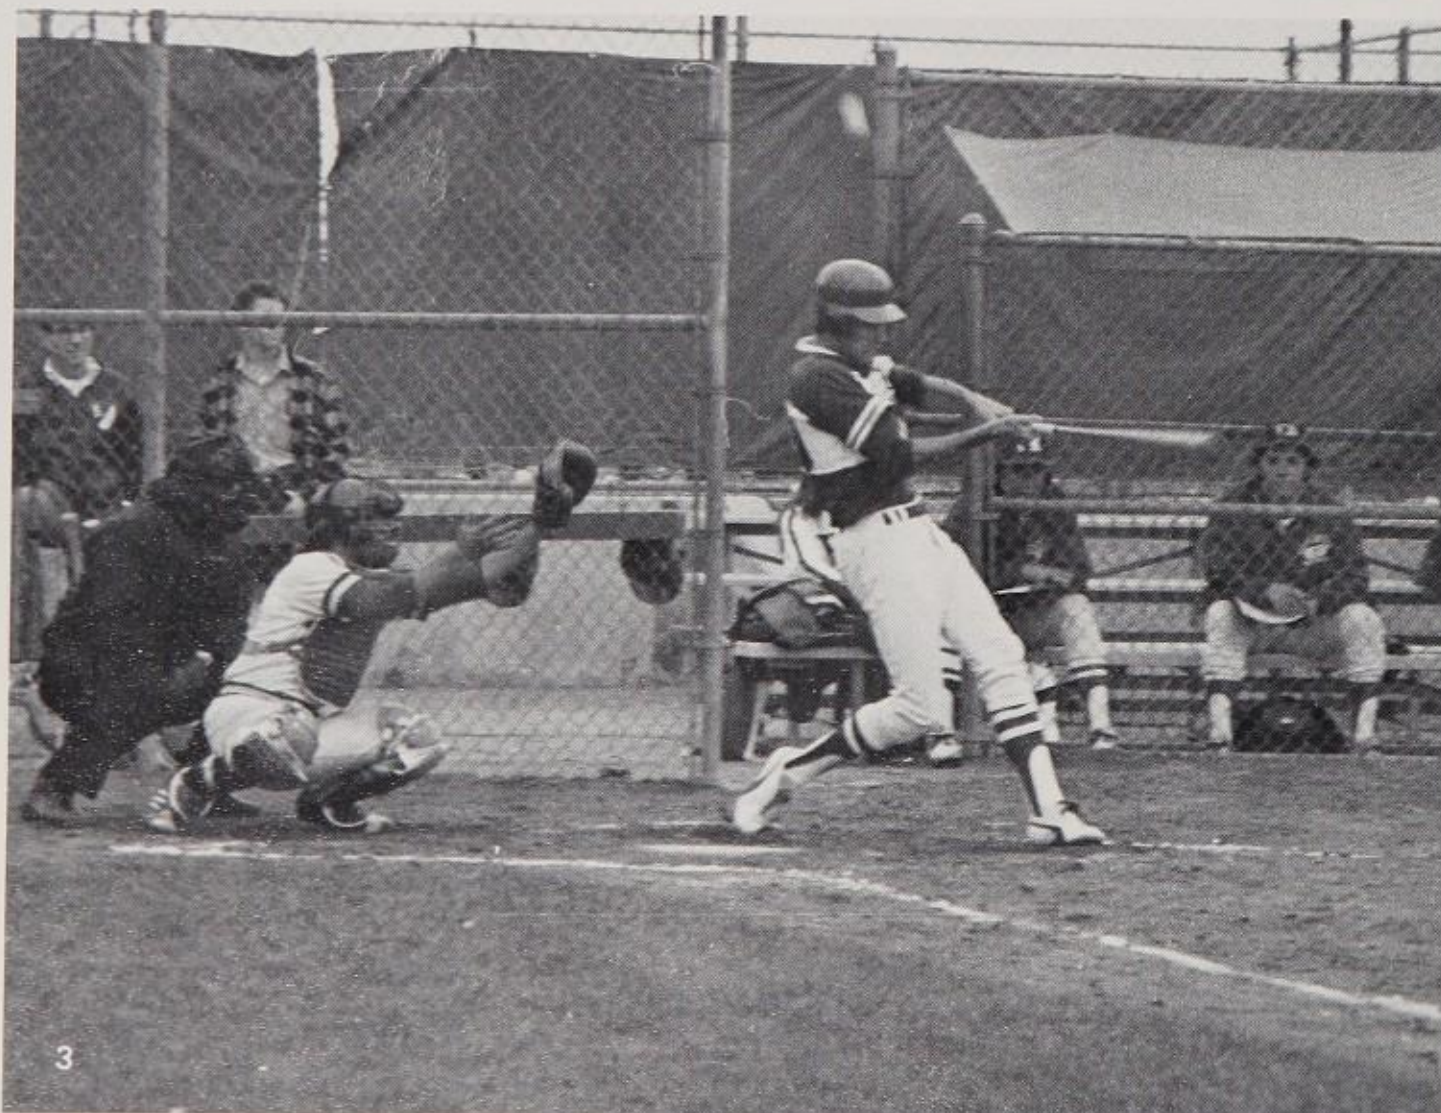

The team's head coach was Mr. Joe White and their home course was Porter Valley Country Club.

Mike Winslow, this year's team captain, led Granada to another good year in golf.

Varsity Baseball

Defending Champs Face Tough Year

After taking the city championship last year, 4-3, the Granada Hills varsity baseball team went through a rebuilding year this past season.

The fielding ability of the Highlanders was good as Granada did not commit many errors. Steve Case and Craig Matsuda played left and centerfield respectively. Alex Caprio usually started in right field and made some fine catches.

The infield was composed of Don DeMint at first base, Dean Valeriano playing second base, Smith at shortstop, while Jim Rosokas handled the third base chores. Dale Hefty, Chuck Kennedy, and Jim Tognozzi traded off playing catcher with Hefty getting most of the assignment.

With Dave Cicero out at the beginning of the season with a sore back, the Scots looked for a new pitcher. Hefty kicked off the season against Monroe but lost in a fine effort.

Varsity.

Scots Play Against Strong Opposition

The Granada varsity baseball team played well over the entire season. The team played 19 games in 1976, 15 of which were league games. The Scots played each team in the Mid-Valley League three times.

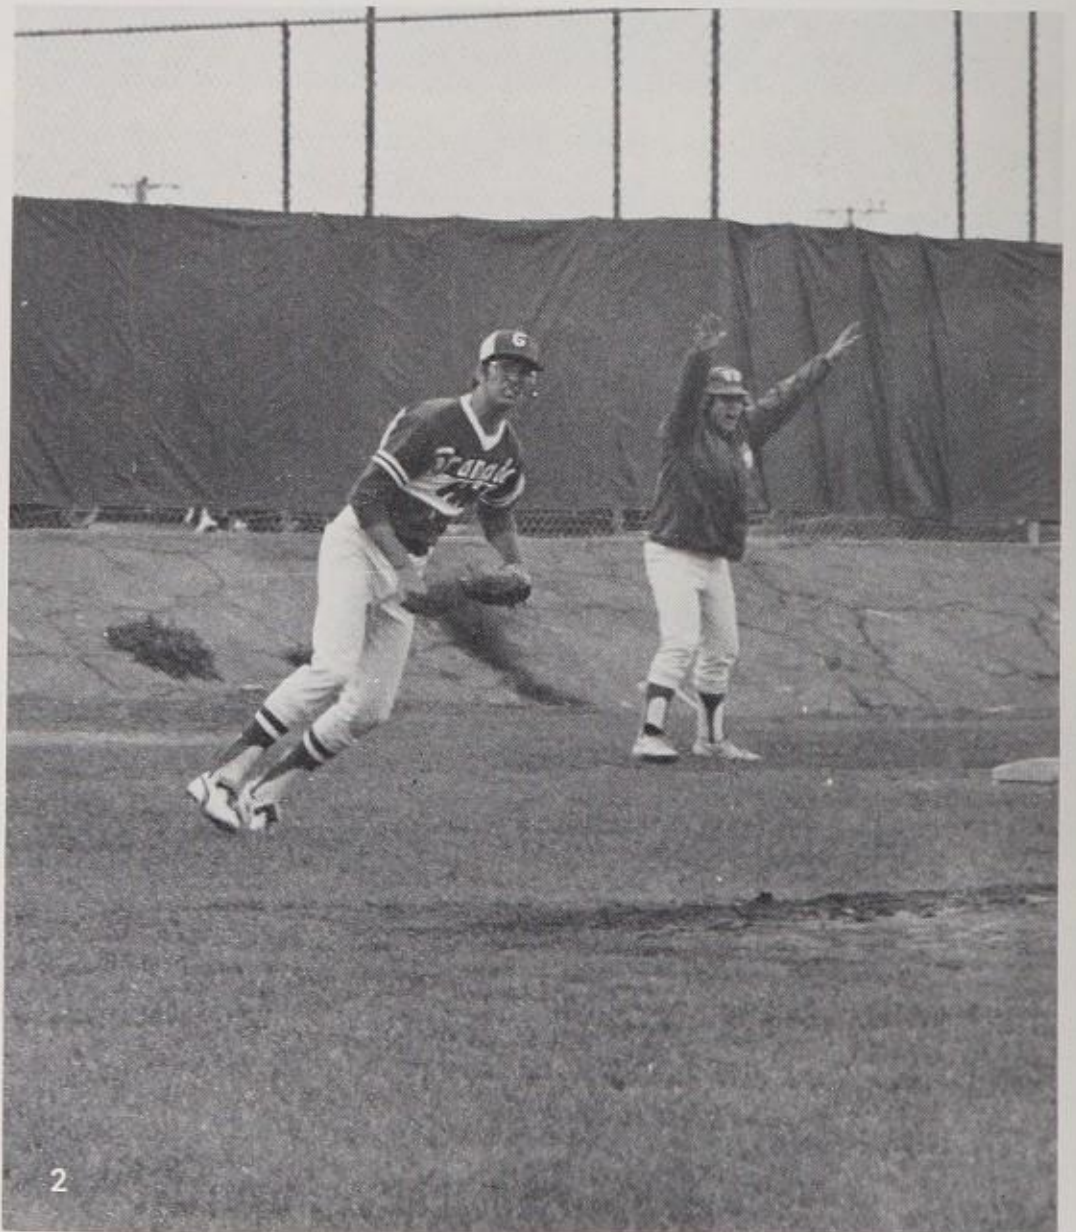

The Highlanders main setback was the inability to score runs when they really needed them although Granada pulled through some tough games. Granada's hitting was good.

The biggest problem for the Scots was finding a consistent pitcher when Dave Cicero was injured. Granada was forced to try many possibilities.

Phil Harwood captured the first Granada win against Van Nuys at home. The Highlanders were behind 3-1 going into the bottom of the sixth inning but the Scots came back and squeezed their way to victory, 4-3.

Tim Collins had a good effort early in the season against the Braves from Birmingham. He struck out ten Braves while allowing only three hits. But the Scots were unlucky as they got only four hits and no runs.

Scot Team Swings With G.H. Strength

Upholding a recent tradition at Granada, the junior varsity baseball team had a good season.

The team began their season on a good note, winning most of their games. Bob Flemming pitches a no-hitter against Birmingham while striking out ten Braves. This is a feat which most high school baseball pitchers never accomplish in their three year career.

The members of the team were good fielders as well as good batters. Mitch Azuz, Chris Sutton, Doug Baker, Bob O'Neil, and Bob Jones all performed very well all season long.

Mr. Tom Richards was the head coach of the team. 1976 was his first full season as head coach.

The junior varsity team competes to give its members experience at the high school level. This prepares the players to compete for a spot on the varsity team in the years to come.

Granada Hills' 1976 varsity track and field team was the school's "best in many years," according to field event coach Robert Johnson. # Cagers Have Fair Season; End, 5-7

Under the coaching of Ruth Gibbs, the varsity team played many close, thrilling games. Led by returning varsity players Rhonda Chiljan and Kathy Bundy, the team ended with a 5-7 record. The Bee team, coached by Carolyn Gunny, had a successful year placing second in the league with a 9-3 record. Next year appears promising as both teams have several returning juniors and sophomores.

Tennis

Team Plays Well; Scots Place First

This year's girls' tennis team was the best in their league. Their season went down to the last game, which they had to win. Granada's girls defeated Chatsworth, 5-2.

The team advanced to quarter finals as they played Pacific Palisades but lost 7-0 to a superb opponent.

Mrs. Bronwyn Weiss, team coach, stated that she felt this year's team was outstanding and those girls made a terrific group.

Gymnastics

Gymnasts Perform Routines With Style

This year's girls' gymnastic team got off to a fresh start with most of the team consisting of tenth graders. Gymnastics is a fine activity for those girls wishing to be active in a sport on an individual basis. Each girl devoted her time in and out of school to build up her skill and technique in events such as the buck, balance beam and floor routines and then to compete in the meets. Miss George, the girls' gymnastic coach, helped the girls in practice and with their routines, providing Granada with many outstanding representatives in the meets.

1. Gigi Railla performs difficult uneven parallel bar routine. 2. Executing an exciting move on the balance beam, Ann Bunyon concentrates intently. 3. 1976 girls' gymnastics team, TOP ROW: S. ### Softball

Defending Champs Off to Clean Start

Defending last year's city championship, the girl's softball team was off to a clean start. The squad lost many key players last year, but it has made a promising comeback. Returning players included Kathy Bundy, Barbara Christy, Debbie Dickson, Patty Gorham, Denise Railla, Beth Winningham, and Gwen Sam.

Granada has captured the city title three times, in 1967, 1968, and 1975; has placed four times in the city playoffs, and has won quite often the league championship.

1. Sherry Spears, a Scot pitcher, releases the ball towards home while attempting to strike out an opponent. 2. Teri Eisenhauer prepares to throw the ball in her effort to get an out for Granada. 3. Irene Perez crouches into position while waiting for the pitcher to throw the ball. 4. Highlander first baseman, Debbie Hauer, stretches to catch the ball while Beth Winningham runs to back her up. 5. 1976 softball team, TOP ROW: K. Weisser-Mang, D. Railla, G. Sam, K. Davison, S. ### Volleyball

Highlanders' Team Spikes With Spirit

Both of Granada's girls' volleyball teams had good seasons this year. The varsity and JV teams compete in the same league, competing against Chatsworth, Sylmar, Monroe, Kennedy, and San Fernando. During the pre-season both teams confronted Pacific Palisades, who proved to be their most formidable opponents, but within the league Kennedy proved to be the most challenging.

The varsity team had three returning players this year: Sue Marshall, Barb Berggren, and Sue Reese. They also had eight girls who moved up from last year's junior varsity team. They played a 6-0 offense, and had a good hitting team, with Barb Berggren as one of the most skillful spikers. The varsity team displayed great effort throughout all of their games.

The junior varsity was a young team this year, with only two returnees: Cathy Coyle and Sandy Pollack. They displayed great spiking skills with Dortha McNinch and Cathy Coyle at the net, and won all but two of their league games. Playing Chatsworth in the finals, the junior varsity brought a second place title to Granada.

Track

Granada Works Out In Field Events

The Granada Hills Girl's track team showed fine performance this season. Because of the mass number of girls sports taking place, the coaches position was given to Mr. Cardamenis; who had assisted previously in the year with boys cross-country. The girls field events were the same as the boys with the exception of the pole vault. They competed in three field and nine running events which are a 80 yard hurdle, three relays-440, 880, and mile-and the 220, 400, 880, and mile dashes. The girls compete at the same time as the boys with a certain sequence of alternating the events between the girls and boys.

1. At the long jump, Tina Sterner leaps with thumbs up. 2. Scot runner outpaces competitor. 3. 1976 girls' track team, TOP ROW: K. Admire, L. Feder, S. Foote, C. Brown, C. McKibban, C. Curtis, V. ## Badminton

Birdies Fly High As Team Competes

The girl's badminton team coached by Mrs. Kennedy had the most successful season this year that Granada has had since they began competing in the sport. There were two doubles teams which qualified for the All-City Individual Badminton Tournament. Karen Schumacher and Laura Bierman represented Granada Hills in the quarter finals, and Susan Dietzer and Jenny Fodor were successful through the elimination tournament and only lost in the semi-finals. The outstanding single players this year were Helen Matthews and Helen Kennedy. The entire team is to be congratulated on their improvement and most rewarding season.

Golf

Highlanders Teeoff In Stiff Competition

This year Granada's girls' golf team, who placed second in their league last year, returned this year to fight for the championship title in the Valley League. They competed against five other teams, including last year's champion, El Camino. The girls played at the Van Nuys 3 par golf course.

This year's team had one returning player, Kim Lounder, a junior. Five other juniors; Terri Actis, Tari McDonald, Cinda Christensen, Sue Walters, and Cathy Coyle, plus two sophomores; Denise Goode and Robin Harris, helped to make it a good season. Several of the girls came from the girls' volleyball team and were expected to do well, reported Mrs. Nybo, the girls' coach.

GROUPS

Special Programs

Educational Options Offered to Students

Granada Hills High offers a variety of educational alternatives for its students. S.W.A.S. is an innovative education plan designed to appeal to the student who can discipline and motivate himself under a "contract program." A similar, but more structured, program is S.A.S. which also allows for a great deal of individualized work. The E.M.R. program provides exceptional students with an atmosphere conducive to learning and the proper instruction to enable them to achieve the skills necessary for effective daily living. The E.H. program is also designed to meet the specific needs of the educationally handicapped students and to help them return to the regular classroom.

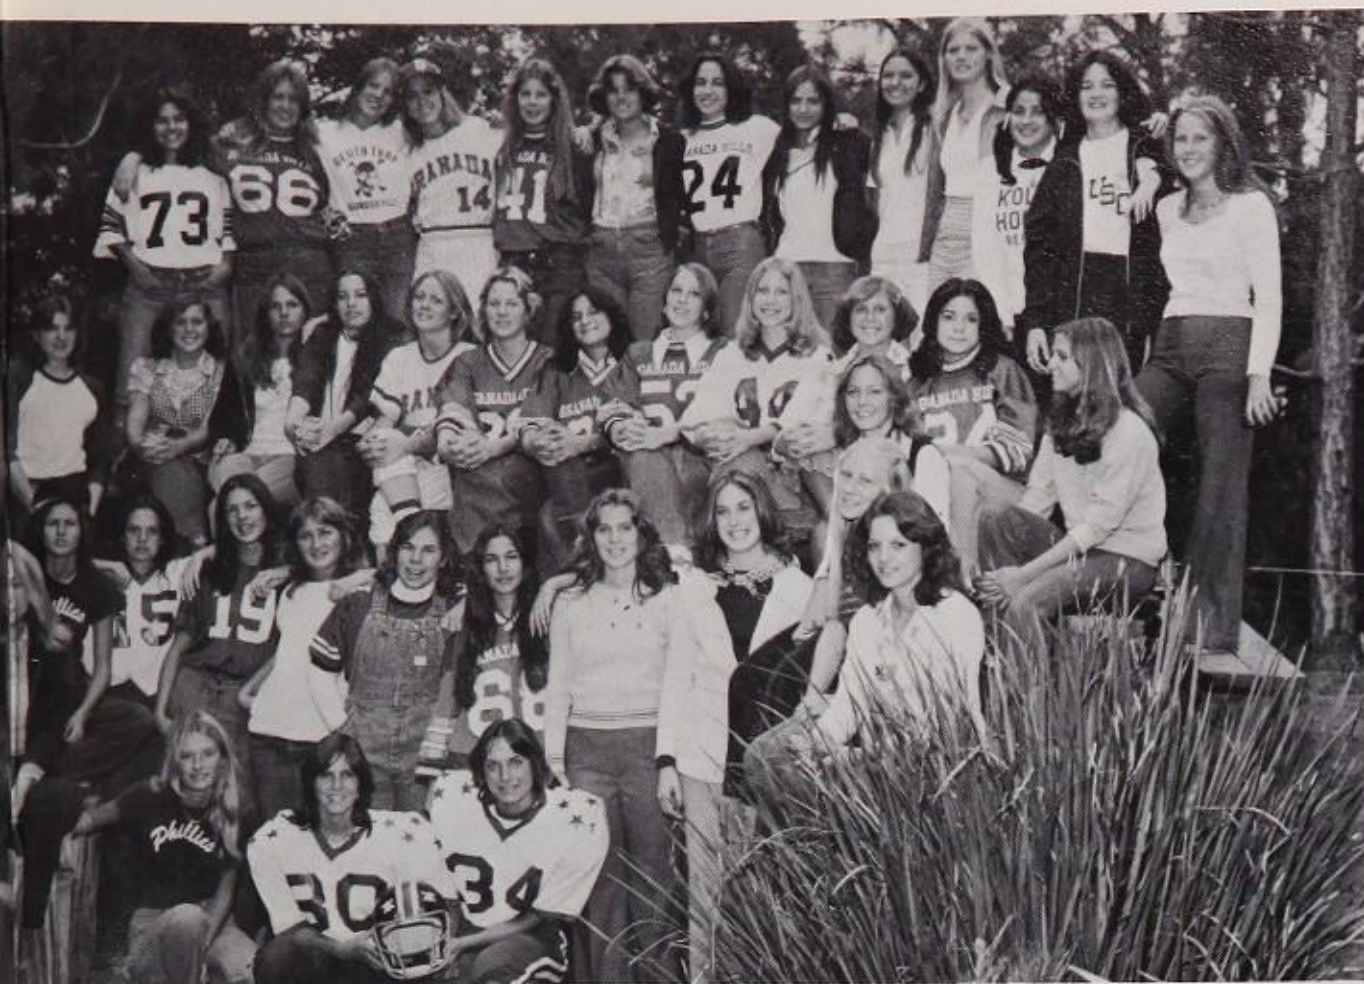

1. Mr. Fabricant leads a group of S.A.S. students in a discussion on history. 2. The low teacher-student ratio is an important part of the E.H. program. 3. E.M.R. student, Jeff Soderquist, spends time studying in class. 4. The informal class atmosphere and opportunities for independent study attract students to the S.W.A.S. program.

Senior Picnic

Seniors Participate in Enjoyable Picnic

The annual Senior Picnic was held at Sunset Farms in Sylmar on October 16. There was a variety of activities such as relay races, apple bobbing in a tub, and volleyball and football games that lasted through the afternoon. The lunch, which consisted of chicken, salad, potatoes, rolls, drinks, and ice cream was catered by Chicken Unlimited.

1. Bill Dorfman was the center of attraction at one of the special activities held at the picnics. 2. A few seniors entertain themselves in a game of volleyball. 3. The Principian class mascot, The Friendly Eagle, watches the events from a tree at the picnic. 4. The potatoe sack races, one of the biggest relays, drew a large crowd of participating seniors. 5. Janice Zubach and Bonnie Heck cool off in the tub after the apple bobbing contest.

Administrative Change

Irwin, Wahlstrom Join At Midyear

At the close of the first semester, Granada's administration underwent two major changes. The principal's office gained a new tenant, Mr. Al Irwin, as Mr. Mathers moved up to a higher position.

Mrs. Jean Wahlstrom took over as assistant principal when Mrs. Maslen also moved to a new job, after having been at Granada for only six months.

1. Sitting at his desk, Mr. Irwin gets used to his new position. 2. Mrs. Wahlstrom looks around her new office.

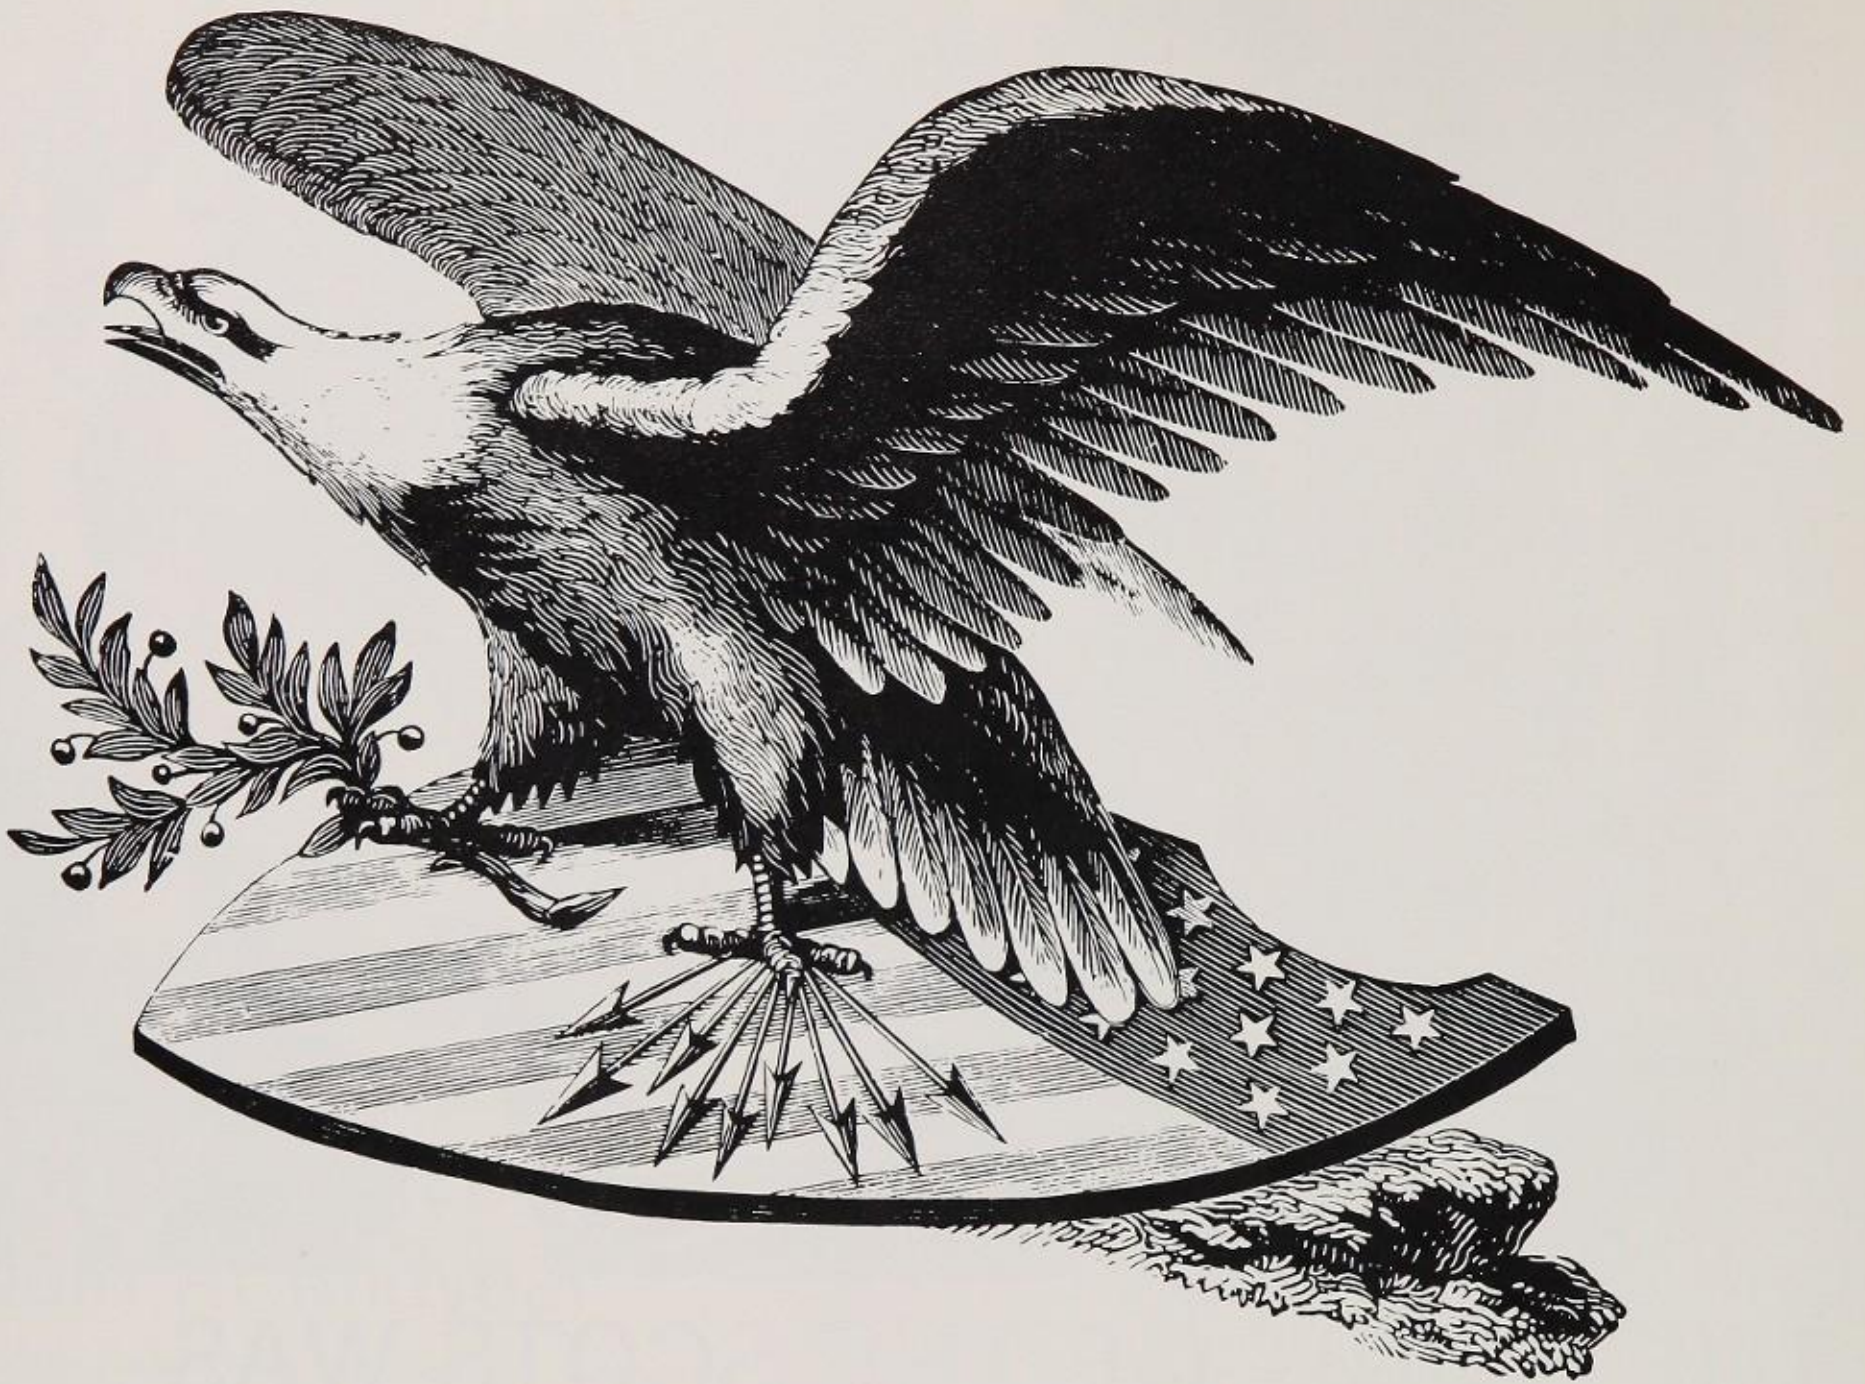

THE SPIRIT OF THE SCOTS WAS . . .

... THE SPIRIT OF '76
